Congratulations to Bernice Campbell on her recent election as this year's D.A.R. representative. This award is given each year to the senior girl who has shown superior qualities of leadership, citizenship, and scholarship. We all agree that Bernice is the ideal person to represent Ypsi High for such an award.

BB

Now that exams and several days of vacation are behind us, we can all return to our regular schedules and wait patiently (?) for four and one half months to pass until school dismisses for the summer vacation. By the way seniors, it's not such a very long time until graduation so make the most of school while you can.

BB

We wish to welcome a new teacher to Ypsi High. This person is Miss Mary Patricia King, who is replacing Miss Duncan in the music department.

BB

Our own Brave basketeers made another good showing last Friday evening, January 28, in an exciting game with Belleville. Of course you know we came out on top with the score of 35-30. Keep up this good work in the remaining six games of the season, boys!

BB

This is a reminder to all students and teachers to make plans to attend the operetta that is called "In Old Vienna" to be given on Thursday, February 10, in the auditorium. The students and teachers in the music and dramatics departments have been working very hard to prepare this musical.

BB

Three members of the dramatics class, Dorothy Houck, Florence Fish, and Joanne Wilson gave their dramatic declamations at the Gilbert House yesterday afternoon for the Pittsfield Village Ladies Aid Society.

BB

Mrs. Jack Lockwood acted as a critic judge at the district tournament for the state debate eliminations today. She judged three rounds of debates that started at 8:00 and ended at 1:00.

BB

Our district debate tournament was held yesterday, February 6, at the administrataion building at Alma College. The debaters who went were Peter Fletcher, Bill Hawes, Nancy Marushak, and Evelyn Sipe. The boys did the debating, and the girls went as substitutes.

Campbell Chosen D.A.R. Representative

Bernice Campbell

The annual D. A. R. award has been made, and the Senior Class and the faculty have chosen Bernice Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Campbell, 309 South Huron to represent the school.

Bernice, better known to her friends as "Bea", has been active in all school activities since her arrival in the seventh grade. In the ninth grade she was elected secretary of the class and has held various offices in homeroom. She is a member of the Girl's Athletic Club, and participates in all interschool sports. She has also been the accompianist for the fourth hour chorus since ninth grade and has been a member of the A Capella Choir for two years. This year Bernice is the treasurer for her class, and she was recently elected as Senior year-book editor.

At the present she is an accompanist for W.H.R.V. on Saturday afternoons. After graduation she expects to attend Michigan State Normal College.

Debaters Participate In State Eliminations

The members and coach of the Ypsilanti High School Debate Squad are happy to announce that they qualified for the state elimination debates. This entitles the school to a Detroit Free Press wall plaque and a certificate of merit will be awarded.

The first elimination debate in which our debaters will participate will be held at Alma College on February 3, 1949. Mrs. Lockwood is only going to take two of the debaters with her, Bill Hawes and Peter Fletcher. They will be prepared to defend either the affirmative or negative side of the question: Resolved that the United Nations now be revised into a Federal World Government. Mrs. Lockwood kept them both very busy over the four days of vacation and during their free time after school this week. She did consent to letting them have a little sleep on Thursday night before the debate so that they would be rested up enough to bring home a victory to Ypsi.

Plans Completed For Centennial

The general committee for our Centennial celebration, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Boutell, has made wonderful plans for the observance of our Centennial.

Monday night, March 14, will be the Community's contribution to Education with a banquet at Charles McKenny Hall given by the Board of Commerce in honor of the Board of Education members both past and present. Everyone will be able to purchase a ticket for the banquet and enter into the celebration.

Tuesday night will be Faculty night which will be an open house and birthday party. They have a nice program planned including prominent people from various educational fields. During the evening there will be many exhibits of pictures, documents and trophies which have been a part of our school for the last one hundred years. The Faculty has planned to serve

Students Work For Thespian Membership

Many students have asked how to become a member of one of our numerous clubs. Here are the qualifications for becoming a member of the National Thespian Society.

A minor role in two or three full length plays, or three or four one-act plays, put on as a school activity shall be accepted for membership.

Any student performing in radio or television dramatic roles, will receive credit depending on the amount of work done. Credit may also be given for workshop, study, or for outstanding class projects in radio or television.

Efficient staff work such as student director, stage manager. electrician, scene designer, stage carpenter, member of costume or make-up committee, business manager, assistant business manager, publicity director, ticket chairman or seller, poster chairman, house chairman, program designer, prompter, and chairman or member of any other committee needed in the production will be credited the same as minor or major roles.

These qualifications are all subject to approval by the sponsor.

JESTER

The Thespians decided to spend a very dignified evening at the Shubert Lafayette Theater; but as a certain member gracefully stepped into the aisle the high heel of her shoe caught on the carpet. As she picked herself up off the floor in a lady-like manner, she ripped the broken heel from the shoe and walked on as though nothing had happened . . . . Don't spread it around but Norman Ball had six lovely ladies falling over him that night. They, too, had tripped on the stairs.

Anne Ragan, Dorothy Houck, and Shirley Daze have become the proud possessors of Judith Anderson's autograph. They made their way backstage to acquire the autograph of this marvelous star of "Medea" and to explore the scenery. They rested on stones made of cushions.

Chit-Chat

By PAT

Hi kids! I hope everyone had a nice vacation even though you did have to worry about report cards. I'm sure everyone came out fairly well, and I know that quite a few made the honor roll.

The Sock-Hop was really a fine party. At least that's what I heard from those who went to it. The girls said it was so nice to go in jeans. Guess the new look isn't exactly comfortable!

Harley Rutledge was the best dressed boy at the ball with his vest, striped T-shirt, jeans and red socks. He ought to be voted the "best hobo of the year."

"Baldy" Roberts went into the dog house, but I think it was just to look around and not because his girl was angry with him.

With the J-Hop coming soon the girls have been buzzin' around looking for a "simply dreamy dress". The fellows too have been looking at their wallets and taking inventory. I guess that corsage has them worried but believe me fellows, roses are just as pretty as orchids!

Everyone should make plans to go to the operetta as it is going to be one of the best we've ever had. The students have been working hard on it, and the music, dancing, singing, and acting are very good. You'll go home humming the tunes you heard sung by your own school chums.

Safety First

(by Bill Hawes)

All of us in the high school have an obligation to the grade children. As long as our school educates pupils of all ages in the same building, it is up to the older students to set an example for the others to follow.

Ever since the new caution light was erected on the corner of Washington and Cross Streets, some students have neglected to obey its signals.

Naturally high school pupils can take care of themselves, however, it would be much better for all concerned if the students crossed at the light and with it.

Too many who are in a hurry cross anywhere on the block and pay no attention to the color of the light.

Surely, it will be a great improvement if all students cross at the signal light for the benefit of the grade pupils and ourselves.

"Isn't It Romantic"

by Patti

When "Mr. Peabody and the Mermaid" started "Feudin', Fussin', and a-Fightin' ", he decided that he would get a "Date With Judy"; so he went to the nearest telephone and tried to call her. It was all in vain, however, because everytime he called the answer was always "Sorry, Wrong Number". Since he was desperate he went to "Good Sam" for advice. "Good Sam" gave him the phone number of "That Lady in Ermine" and told him "Miss Tatlock's Millions" should make him forget. Convinced that "You Gotta Keep Happy", Peabody asked Miss Tatlock to go with him to "Frenchman's Creek" on a "Luxury Liner'. On the way "The Three Musketeers" "Kidnapped" "Miss Tatlock (and her) Millions". This broke the "Enchantment' of what he had thought was an "Innocent Affair".

When Mr. Peabody arrived back home, he wrote "Love Letters" to "Rebecca" saying "My Dear Secretary", I have finally realized that you are "My Own True Love". Since "Every Girl Should Be Married" will you be my "June Bride?" The answer was, of course, yes.

In case you might be interested, the mermaid, "The Lucky Stiff", married "Johnny Belinda", who was "The Man From Colorado".

Radio Review

On Tuesday, January 18, Faith Cook, Bonnie Martin, and Marian Green made the blood of the people listening to the "Ypsilanti Schools in Review" run cold; as they reinacted the witches scene from Macbeth. The able announcer for the program was David Rorabacher. Carol Barney and Evelyn Biggs gave a heart-warming act from "Romeo and Juliet". Jane Eyre was realistically acted by Elda Utley, Betty Watling, and Nancy Weinman. Peter Fletcher announced that it was "Centennial Time" at Ypsilanti High. Peter also announced, that in celebration of this event, there would be a board of education centennial banquet March 15, and a pageant on the history of Ypsilanti High School on March 17.

On Tuesday, February 1, a musical program was put on under the direction of J. Herbert Fry. The A Capella Choir sang "Now the Day is Over" by Barnby, "Now Let All the Heavens Adore Thee" by Bach, "The Lord Bless You and Keep You" by Lutken, and "A Russian Picnic" a folk tune.

Ypsi High has relieved Roosevelt High School of four of the eight radio programs they had scheduled for this year.

Warm Weather or Woolies?

"I have a little shadow that goes in and out with me, but what can be the use of him is more than I can see . . " This might be the theme for one of America's best known weather forecasters — the groundhog. Perhaps he doesn't know that on February second vast multitudes wait for hours to hear of the success of the men who make special missions to see and report his actions. Some people rely on their corns to tell them of changes in the weather; others say that rheumatism of the joints is the only real test; and a few skeptics read the reports of the weather bureau. However, they all seem to agree that if the groundhog sees his shadow the only safe thing to do is to bring out the long red underwear and prepare for six more weeks of winter.

Backstage

Over 2,300 years ago a play was given in the huge ampitheatre at Athens, Greece. The audience sat spellbound as the leading player raged and shrieked before them. The play was "Medea", written by Euripedes. The spectators went wild over it. Today, many centuries later, this play is still thrilling its audiences.

Miss Iseminger's dramatic classes went into Detroit to see this masterpiece on Wednesday, February 3. Breathlessly they watched as the story unfolded, wondering where they had got the idea that ancient Greek literature was dull.

Judieth Anderson played the title role of Medea. The neurotic Medea had been jilted by her husband, Jason, so that he could marry the king's daughter. She was ordered to exile, but was allowed one day of grace to make arrangements for her children. Outraged, she planned her revenge. She sent her children to Jason's new bride with a poisoned gift. The bride died along with her father, who had tried to save her. Then, her rage growing more violent, Medea kills her two children, and Jason finds her laughing hysterically over their bodies. Realizing that she will never know happiness again, she departed in her golden chariot.

Miss Anderson triumphed in the exhausting role in which she claws, moans, and shrieks for nearly two hours. This Australian actress made her debut in 1915 in Sydney, Australia. Since then she has won wide acclaim in this country with her performances in such plays as "Cherry Orchard", "Strange Interlude", and "Morning Becomes Electra".

Sock Hop Enjoyed By Many Students

The annual winter party, "The Ridge Runners Ball", was held in the high school gym on January 27, from 9-12 o'clock. The party was sponsored by the Student Council with Don Wallace, vice-president, as general chairman.

Everyone was dressed in his plaid shirts and overalls. They also wore their brightest wool socks, because the party was a Sock Hop. Not too many were present, but a most enjoyable evening was spent by all those who attended.

The music was very cleverly furnished by Ken Norman's orchestra from Ann Arbor. The theme of the party was carried out in the decorations by a line of socks strung down the center of the gym. On one end of the band stand was a big hillbilly figure playing a fiddle, while on the other end was a hillbilly playing a banjo. In the center of the floor was a large dog house. It seems as though this interested several students before the evening was over.

Physical Education Teacher Marries

January 29, 1949, was quite a big day in the life of Miss Swanson, one of our instructors in the Physical Education department. But of course one's wedding day is always a great occasion.

There was something about this wedding that was very different from other weddings; for by an odd coincidence Miss Swanson married a Mr. Swanson. So remember students and faculty from now on it's Mrs. Swanson not Miss Swanson.

She has been one of Ypsilanti High School's physical education teachers for two years, and we are very fortunate, too, because she plans to continue teaching.

Miss Swanson completed four years of college at the University of Michigan after which she took a graduate course at Stanford in California.

Mr. Elmer Swanson is an assistant track coach at the University of Michigan. He completed four years of college through the Marine Corps at the University after which he took up graduate work at this same college.

To both of you, the faculty and students of Ypsilanti High School extend their "congratulations and the best of luck and happiness."

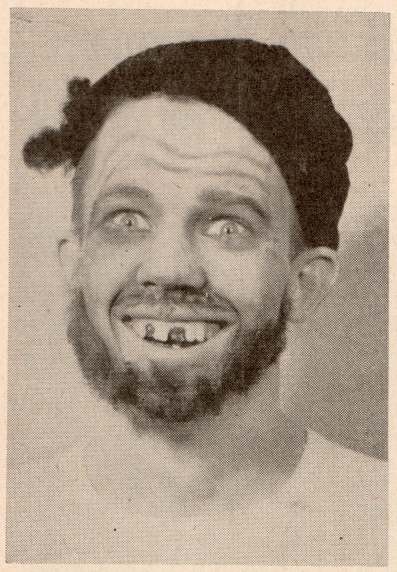
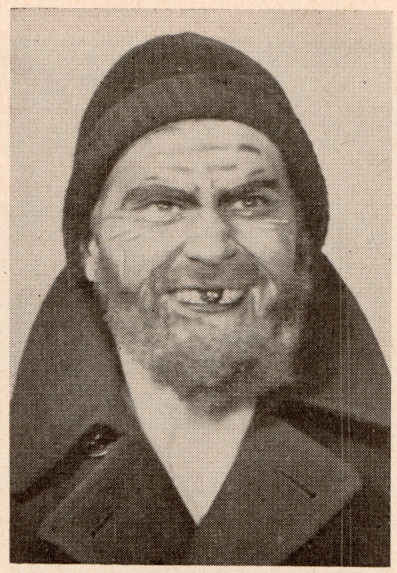
WANTED ! !



Y-203-12



X-312-12

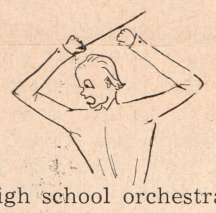
This is a warning to all students who value anything at all. The desperadoes pictured above are on the loose, and have been reported in the vicinity of Ypsilanti High School.

The Seaman is wanted for "salting" all the supplies of fresh gold fish in the local stores. In one of the stores a sales girl remembered a statement he made to her before the seasoning was done. It was his idea that the puny, yellow fish would be a healthier color, and much bigger if they lived in salt water like the ocean. It was after this the sales girl noticed the dark cloudiness of the fish reservoir. The water was analized and found to be saturated with salt.

No less harmful is the Pirate who is wanted for the disorder which can be found along the banks of the Huron River. The litter consists of numerous, small sailboats which sail under the black and white skull and bones flag. Also found floating in the River, or along the banks were bottles with crude maps drawn in pencil of supposed buried treasure (with x marking the spot). The Pirate has been heard singing this ditty.

Fifteen men on the Dead Man's chest —
Yo-ho-ho, and a bottle of rum!
Drink and the Devil had done for the rest —
Yo-ho-ho, and a bottle of rum!

There will be a reward, of no value, for any information about these two characters.



The high school orchestra's arrangement of "Peter and the Wolf" was enjoyed by both the high school students and the grade school pupils. The younger students naturally were more impressed. The expression on their faces showed their excitement.

In the near future the orchestra and the concert band will travel to Prospect, Woodruff, and Harriet Schools to play various selections that they have been working on. This is the first time in the history of our school that anything such as this has been done in the music department.

The choruses have been preparing for the 6B music festival. Some of the songs that they are working on are, "Comin' Thru' the Rye", "Madame Jeanette", "Now the Day Is Over", and "There Are Such Things".

CENTENNIAL

Birthday cake and tea after the program.

Thursday night the 17th will be the night of the big pageant which as yet has not been fully planned.

Most of you students know by now that our school will be one hundred years old in March but did you know that we are the first secondary school in the whole state of Michigan to be supported by the community.

Inquiring Reporter

Since you all know there are many successful (?) people floating around Ypsi High, I moseyed around and asked some of these students what saying, slogan, or song that helped them to success.

Ronald Krull —
Hoist 'em in elevator shoes
Raise your blues.

Donald Wallace —
Built in muscles in your suit
Can really make you awful cute.

Pat Whalls —
Toni Home Permanents.

Harold Duede —
Blub-Glub fish meal
Makes your fishes swim with zeal.

Kenneth MacDonald — Nobody "nose" the trouble I've seen.

Ted Hon —
Dead, wed, or sick in bed
Our flowers encourage them.

Mr. Deetz — We guarantee you that you can swim after just 3 239¾ easy lessons.

Larry Batterson —
Bench-warming with practice,
Makes bench-warming perfect.

Bruce Wallace — Ha! What success?

Mary Scheffler —
My secret is spasmonic,
Anyone knows it's Earl Sonoc.

Donna Peebles —
I could say it was talent, but—
I'll have to say it's rut.

Zadok St. John —
It would have come out by and by,
But I'm a lover on the sly.

Wendel Green — It is something that rhymes with green.
(Could it possibly be Barbara Jean?)

Lee Wynn —
My success is very thin
Maybe because of Caroline.

Now that you know the reasons why some of our brilliant Ypsi High students are successful, you can pick your own slogan and hope you make the grade. Good luck!

The Adventures of Sam Shovel

by Ed Ellis

My name is Sam Shovel and I'm a "private-eye." When I woke up this morning, the clothes that I was still wearing were torn, the lights were on, and my head was splitting from a lump that was on the back of it. Right away I knew something had happened the night before, because I never go to bed without turning the lights off. Then she walked in. Her hair was messed up, her face was scratched and was a ghostly white color. Suddenly I realized she forgot her make-up. She told me that a guy threatened to kill her if she didn't pay him 50 G's. She asked me if she should go to the police. I said, "No, they wouldn't led you a dime."

That night I went to the night club where she worked. I asked the manager if anyone had been asking for her. He said, "Yes, a guy about 8½ feet tall, wearing snow-shoes, striped pants, polka dot coat, a black hat, and a television set strapped to his back." I asked him if he noticed anything strange about the man. He said, "No."

I left and was walking down the street when I sensed that someone was following me. Either the guy had three legs or it was Hop-a-long Cassidy. To my amazement it was neither. It was Sergeant O'Mally and Lieutenant O'Hara of the O' homocide squad. They said they were going to take the case over, but would I let 'em? Nah! They did it anyway. Then I said to myself, "Shovel, you fool," and hit myself in the jaw. I don't take that kind of talk from nobody!

When I got back to the hotel, I heard Charles Boyer making love to her. "Ah, Cheri, come with me on a slow boat to China." Now, ain't that just like a woman!

Swimmers Sink Opponents

Braves Edge Out Trenton by Two Points

The Ypsi mermen traveled to Trenton last Saturday evening and edged out their rivals 43 to 41.

The swimming meet started off with a bang as Boughner of Trenton out-touched Salow of Ypsi to take a first in the 50 yard freestyle. Boughner then repeated his first performance by taking a first in the 100 yard freestyle by beating Duede of Ypsilanti, who placed second.

Chambers and Evans took firsts for the Braves; then Bates and Green took first and second respectively in diving and enabled the Braves to take the lead as the meet was drawing to a close.

Chambers, Warmington, and Duede wrapped it up for the Braves by winning the medley relay. Other point winners for Ypsi were Krull and Laing.

Coach Ralph Deetz displayed his excellent reserve power by bowling over Trentons reserves.

After the meet, the victors were entertained with a lunch and a dance sponsored by Trenton.

Braves Victorious Over Plymouth Five

The Ypsi Braves put another game in their win column by defeating Plymouth 47-44 the night of January 21, 1949 on Plymouth's floor.

The Braves got off to a fast start and looked very good; by the half they had built up a good-sized lead.

In the second half Ypsi seemed to let down and Plymouth took advantage of this to start their drive which resulted in Plymouth taking a small lead. To make things worse Ypsi lost Captain Perry, Dave Hill and Larry Batterson through fouls. In the last few seconds with a one point lead Wayne Strohl tiped in a foul shot to put the game on ice. Bob Raham was high point man for Ypsi with 16 points.

The Ypsi second team lost their game 44-14.

Wendell Green

Ypsi Basketeers Defeat Belleville

Last Friday night the Ypsi Braves Basketeers won their sixth game of the season by defeating Belleville 35 to 30.

"Butch" Batterson opened the night's scoring with the first bucket. Ypsi was hot on the long shots, with Raham and Roberts connecting on several occasions.

As the boys left the floor for the half-time, the score stood at 17 to 9. In the first half Ypsi controlled the boards, with Wayne Strohl doing the biggest part of the job of rebounding.

In the next playing quarters Ypsi managed to keep the lead and went on to 35 to 30. Lowell Perry sprained his ankle, and was unable to play. Acting captain for the evening was Bob Raham who made 8 points; Dave Hill, Larry Batterson, Wayne Strohl with 7 points, and Dick Roberts finished with 6 points.

The second team had an easy time with their competitors, with most of the Ypsi squad getting to play. They won with a tip-top score of 26 to 9.

Brave Swimmers Sink Adrian, 44-40

The long awaited victory over Adrian finally came Friday afternoon, Jan. 21, as a large crowd watched the Braves splash to a 44-40 victory over Adrian. It was the first time in the three years, by the way, that Adrian has been defeated.

Ypsi swimmers placed first in five out of a possible nine events with Harold Duede setting the pace with a first in the 50 and 100 yard freestyle. Other first place winners were Clarence Chambers on the back stroke; Floyd Warmington in the individual medley and Charles Bates in diving.

Other points were supplied by Don Salow, Ron Krull, Bill Friend, Pete Dyer, and Wendell Green.

Coach Batterson Starts Training

Although the snow is still on the ground and the temperature is below freezing, Coach Lou Batterson has started spring training for baseball. This will be Coach Batterson's first year as head baseball coach, and with his experience in major and minor league ball, the Braves should compile a pretty good record. The Varsity has three starting hurlers back with Ted Hopkins, Jim Derryberry, and Jack Walker. Derryberry and Hopkins have had a few years of hurling behind them and Walker looked sensational in the games he pitched last year.

Coach Batterson played at Waco, Texas, with an army team during the war, and he played with such major league stars as Hoot Evers of the Detroit Tigers, Birdie Tebbetts of the Boston Red Sox, and Cecil Hudson of the Washington Senators.

Back with the Braves are also Co-Captains — Dale Schaffer and Lowell Perry. Let's wish Coach Batterson and his men all the luck in the world and hope for a sensational baseball season.

Swami Prediction Comes True, 43-41

Tuesday the mermen gave the "Swami" an accurate prediction by downing a strong Pontiac team by the score of 43 to 41.

Duede again was high point man for the Braves taking both the 50 and the 100 yard free style.

Chambers continued his winning streak by taking a first in the 100 yard back-stroke. Warmington took first in the 100 yard breast-stroke, and second in the individual medley being just nosed out by a Pontiac swimmer.

The Joys of Writing a Sports Story

Oh! but it's a painful operation, writing an editorial. The non-combatant has no idea of the wear and tear upon a person.

First, a perfectly good pencil is horribly mutilated by the teeth while one tries to dope out a scheme, one that isn't so old that it is covered with dust and cobwebs.

Then you sit and think and think, etc., until, off comes coat, and vest, and then you think some more.

Ideas are thrown away, some in disgrace. But the one idea always seems to slip thru your fingers. Next the perspiration of honest work falls in large drops from your manly brow, but you still think.

At last you've almost got it. There it goes! Catch it! Quick! Oh! now you've got it. And you can finish your story in peace.

Oh! but isn't it a grand feeling.

But it's some job to write a sports story and you sometimes don't get ideas, hence this one.

W. E. S.

Strohl . . . . . Locker Room Echoes . . . . . Britton

It was sure an exciting game last week against Belleville. The gang is really in their pitching this year and all you kids are backing them up. The next game is tomorrow night at Trenton, and I expect a lot of you kids there to be behind them in this game which could mean the league title.

o o O O

"Call Einstein . . . Get a comptometer . . . pencil and paper . ." What's the matter you ask me. It's just that I saw Coach Isbell and Captain Lowell Perry winning the championship on paper.

You see Ypsilanti is tied in the league with Wayne and Trenton, and all three of them will start to meet each other tonight at Trenton. This and other games will be top notch games for the crowd to watch when these three teams will be coming down the home stretch for the league championship.

o o O O

Coach Deetz has recently gone in for crystal-ball gazing. He predicted that Ypsi would take the meet from Pontiac 43-41. Guess what the final score was? That's right 43-41.

YESTER-YEARS

The other day I was looking over some of the old issues of the Sem dating back to 1915, and I found that Ypsilanti High School had teams that were feared by their opponents. Many of those famous athletes now have children in this great institution of higher learning. You hay recognize your father's name or the name of a friend of the family.

In 1915 Ypsilanti football team had a very successful season by winning seven, tieing one, and losing the first game of the season to Ann Arbor. The captain for this year was Woters (they did not give his first name).

Now that I told you what they did in footbal lin 1915 let's turn to a different year 1935. In these days we find that Malcolm Chubb was leading scorer in basketball while playing in his senior year. Some of the other players were Goodsman, Jones, Fosdick, Duffy, and Wales. In this year Ypsilanti finishe dthird in the Twin Valley Association. They did not finish too high up in the league, but they were feared by other schools because they were losing games by one one or two points.

A team does not have to be a winner all the time to be feared by opponents, because a team that is not winning all the time is working harder to get on the winning path than a team that is on it.

of the past, but I do not have I could write all day on the teams room to do this so I will close for now.
